

WALL STREET.

TUESDAY, April 10.

It is still the money question that bothers the stock market. A number of adroit and daring bulls are ready to put their shoulders to the wheel for a strong push, but money is too scarce to encourage aggressive operations. "As soon as we get easy money you will see a booming market," said an ardent, but impatient, follower of the bull syndicate that controls the copper stocks. One of the strongest features of the stock market has been the demonstrated ability of the leading bull pools to support their stocks whenever symptoms of a serious break appeared. This ability was put to a pretty severe test in two or three instances to-day.

Some disappointment is occasioned by the dilatoriness of gold imports. The drop in the rate for demand sterling, it was thought, would accelerate the movement of gold across the Atlantic in this direction. The trouble seems to be that there is no bar gold in the London open market. The Bank of England, it is understood, still refuses to sell bar gold for shipment to the United States. Cablegrams announce that about $2,000,000 more of South American gold will arrive in London next week, but American bankers know full well that they will have to compete with Paris for any bar gold found in the London market.

New York banks continue to ease cash to the Sub-Treasury, and the little traders in the stock market are grumbling bitterly over tight money. Call money opened to-day at 20, and with the exception of a few loans at 18 most of the loans were negotiated at the maximum rate. Brokers generally are endeavoring to keep up their courage by telling each other that the latter part of the week will bring easier monetary conditions. There is, however, nothing definite in sight to confirm this expectation. Prospects are so uncertain, in fact, that the opposition to closing the Stock Exchange on Good Friday, according to custom, has become very strong. Should the Exchange be closed on Friday, loans will have to be negotiated on Thursday to carry over till Monday. Such an event, it is feared, would aggravate the money situation.

Commission houses are advising their customers to watch the market for breaks and be ready to buy good stocks on any break of a point or more. This advice was acted upon freely when Union Pacific and Amalgamated took a downward dip to-day. The rapid reaction, generally from the best prices of the forenoon, was, in fact, quite tempting in the bargain.

Demand for West-Cargo Express stock has been searching and urgent in the open market. Such an event, it is feared, would aggravate the money situation. The company to discontinue its dividend, plus in extra dividends, comparatively few of the stockholders know that the company's dividend is to be discontinued. Mr. Stone and his associates in the profits of the company will justify annual dividends at the rate of 10 percent.

The decision of the Western management not to buy the Chicago Southern Railway—one of the three Western lines—has caused a sharp reaction in the market. The Western management is not buying the Chicago Southern Railway, one of the three Western lines—has caused a sharp reaction in the market. ## COTTON PRICES UP ON GOOD BUYING.

Cotton was firm in the early market to-day, with first prices 5 to 6 points higher. Business was decidedly active and the sales large. The upturn in prices was due to bullish cables, good general buying, and a large trade at Manchester.

New York's opening prices were: April, none; May, 11.25 to 11.25; June, none; July, 11.25 to 11.25; August, 11.25 to 11.25; September, 10.25 to 10.25; October, 10.25 to 10.25; November, none; December, 10.25 to 10.25; January, 10.25 to 10.25.

COMPOSER IS DEAD. CINCINNATI, Ohio, April 10.—Rev. Norris Goldstein, for 25 years cantor of the Temple in this city, and composer of much of the music in use in Jewish Synagogues throughout the United States, died at his home yesterday, aged sixty-six years. He was a native of Austria and before coming to this city had been cantor of congregations in Vienna and New York city.

In his lot of Trousers you will find sizes up to 46 inches waist measure and all lengths NEAT STRIP, WORSTEDS and CHEVIOTS. Hardly enough to last during the full time of the sale, consequently be early and you'll get the best values.

Smart $25 Suits at $14.50

Take your choice of two hundred.

$25 Eton Suits, $25 Pony Coat Suits, $25 White Serge Suits, $25 Box Coat Suits, $25 Chiffon Panama and Broadcloth Eton Suits, $14.50

STYLE, quality and workmanship that no dressmaker could afford to duplicate for less than $35.

On sale regularly all over New York at $25. Same quality, but not the same styles—these are exclusive.

Alterations, if necessary, will be made on all suits bought to-morrow in time for Easter Sunday.

Hundreds are waiting for this sale. Disappointed in not coming in time to secure similar values last Wednesday, we promised them another sale, and here it is to-morrow.

That's all we dare say, or we will not have half enough for to-morrow. Although the selection and variety are the largest and best shown by any store this season, so the manufacturer tells us.

Carpet and Rug Sale Talk of The Town

A LITTLE clear water spilled on one of your carpets or rugs wouldn't cause you any worry because it wouldn't hurt the carpet or rug. That's exactly what happened to these floor coverings. They were stored in rolls and bales in a basement warehouse ready for shipment to a Western house to be sold at the prices we say they are worth. A few got wet along the edges when a water-pipe burst, but they are thoroughly dry and as desirable as new, perfect goods. Others were not touched by the water. The owners, however, would not ship them as perfect and turned them over to us at half.

Wonderful bargains for those who do not doubt. The crowds are so great at these sales that we are compelled to extend them over two days—WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY—for THESE BARGAINS. The tremendous crowds, the unparalleled enthusiasm and the record-breaking sales, established the fact that, even though damaged by water, the floor coverings and draperies are desirable, and that no values in New York this season compare with them.
